TSLAC Family Place Training Award Requirements

This one-time, federally-funded award paid directly to Middle Country Public Library on behalf of the above-named recipient covers the recipient's tuition expenses related to attending online Family Place training.

As a selected recipient of a TSLAC Family Place Training Award, the library legal entity, library, and award recipient agree to the following terms of the training award.

1. Award Recipient will:

- a. Notify TSLAC as soon as possible if selected Recipient is unable to attend the training, or becomes otherwise ineligible to attend (e.g., accepts a different position within the library or leaves employment at the library named above). Substitutions may be permitted subject to TSLAC approval.
- b. Attend all scheduled activities as outlined in the Family Place training syllabus provided to the recipient once training begins.

Please email the completed MOU to Bethany Wilson, TSLAC Grants Administrator, at bwilson@tsl.texas.gov on or before April 15, 2022.
